This past June marked the ordination of ten more men as priests of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary. The long path to the priesthood which started in the seminary many years ago finally ended in the sanctuary when they received the power to offer and renew the Sacrifice of Calvary on the altar.

It was not without difficulty, however, that their goal was attained. They could not have reached the altar without the help of many friends and benefactors. For this assistance they are most grateful, and they extend their heartfelt thanks.

We may be sure that, as they offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass each day, all who have helped in any way, but especially their sponsors, will be remembered before the throne of God. It is their sincere prayer that all these be filled with the peace and joy of the Heart of Christ.
