

Rest in Peace

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

It is once more with sadness that we let you know of the death of Scott Santangelo, 51, the youngest brothers of Fr. Chris Santangelo, ss.cc. who was killed in a two-car accident in Massachusetts on Monday. We ask for your prayers as we remember Scott and send our loving support to Chris and his three siblings, who buried both of their parents less than a year ago. Chris will be leaving California to be with his family during this very difficult time.

Herman
